

Splish Splash Honors Local Heroes All Week Long

New York's Largest Water Park® kicks off Hero Appreciation Week on August 16

CALVERTON, NY (August 11, 2021) – Long Island's Splish Splash is saying thank you to all local heroes this August. The water park will host a five-day celebration offering firefighters, police officers, first responders, active and retired military members, doctors and nurses discounted Hero Appreciation admission for themselves and up to five of their guests from August 16-20. Hero Week tickets will go on sale on August 16 for $39.99 both online and at the Splish Splash gate. Guests will be asked to show ID at the front gate.

On Tuesday, August 17 Splish Splash will host a touch a truck event in partnership with the Riverhead Police Department, Riverhead Fire Department, Riverhead Volunteer Ambulance and Peconic Bay Medical Center. Guests in attendance are invited to sit in a fire truck, check out a patrol car, grab fun photos and interact with these local heroes to learn more about a day in their lives. The event will run from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.

"We are happy to be able to show our appreciation to our local service members, doctors, nurses, first responders, firefighters and police officers," says General Manager Mike Bengtson. "These heroes supported our communities throughout the pandemic, and this week is our way of giving back and saying thank you."

Splish Splash will offer discounted admission at $39.99 per guest to all hometown heroes and up to five of their guests. Those interested in purchasing tickets should head to splishsplash.com/plan-a-visit/tickets-and-passes.

Splish Splash is open from 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. seven days a week. Weekday admission starts at $49.99 for adults and $44.99 for juniors and seniors, and weekend admission starts at $54.99 for adults and $49.99 for juniors and seniors when purchased online.
