

More Days of Family Fun Coming to Splish Splash with Expanded Schedule

New York's Largest Water Park® will open daily beginning June 29 as local conditions improve

CALVERTON, NY – A slow and steady start to Splish Splash Waterpark's summer season is about to pick up: the Long Island landmark will open daily beginning Tuesday, June 29.

Despite an unseasonably cold Memorial Day weekend, New Yorkers have returned as Splish Splash welcomed its first guests since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic over the past month. The encouraging consumer demand, coupled with improving regional conditions, allows Splish Splash to add more days and hours onto the calendar. June's limited schedule will give way to a July calendar looking much more like a pre-pandemic summer month at New York's Largest Water Park®. Splish Splash's new operating hours are Saturday – Sunday 10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. and Monday – Friday 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. beginning June 29.

“We planned to reopen cautiously,” says General Manager Mike Bengtson. “We have seen a huge response so far, and are pleased to ramp up operations to seven days a week – the perfect way to celebrate our 30th season of serving New Yorkers.”

Splish Splash continues to build its workforce to meet the demand of guests gearing up for summer fun. Pay rates have been increased significantly, with seasonal staff able to make up to $18 an hour with additional benefits.
